

2001

the band disgroove was founded. drummer tobi and guitarist/singer philippe bring alot of live- and studio experience from their former band "gurd".

2002

disgroove are working intensively on new songs in preparation for their first demo, while performing concerts round the basel region.

2003

a four song demo is being released, for which the band gets nominated for the diesel-u-music award.

in november/december, the first longplayer is recorded in their own studio. eric klinger, guitar player and producer of U.S. Hardcore band pro-pain, is producing the record.

2004

disgroove signs a record deal with n-gage (www.n-gage.ch), where the first longplayer "down on myself" is released on june 1st, 2004. the video for "down on myself" is being played by swiss tv stations SF2 and VIVA.

disgroove supports "velvet revolver" at the music festival in winterthur.

2005

disgroove performs at alot of shows and continues songwriting for the second album.

eric klinger also records and produces the successor of "down on myself" in november.

2006

the second album "three" is released in february, following several tours abroad supporting "die happy" and "revolverheld".

bass player flipper quits the band and is replaced by franky.

2007

disgroove kicks off the year with two more tours, supporting the UK band "McQueen" and their german friends "die happy" again.

the band writes more songs in summer and records their third album "gasoline" with V.O. pulver and franky winkelmann (gurd) at the little creek studio.

2008

"gasoline" is released, with an extended swiss tour to follow.

